THE HIGHEST PRAISE

- HIGHER praise could not be given a city than that which William E. Sweet bestowed upon Colorado Springs vesterday at the laving of the cornerstone of the new Young Women's Christian association building: that this is the safest city in the state to rear a ramity.

Cities should exist primarity not as places of business nor of pleasure but of Christian homes. That Colorado Springs is the safest home city in the state proves that her citizens, more nearly than those of any other city in Colorado, have attained the ideal city:

Bin the duty of Colorado Springs does not end with our city limits. Colorado Springs, through the influence of its men and women in sociological and religious organizations, through the men and women sent to the state legislature, should seek to spread abroad its influence throughout the entire state. We should keep our own city clean and wholesome and we should seek to make every other city and fown in Coforado us safe for children, as attractive as home cities, as is Colorado

THE BATH TUB VICTORY

THE bath substrust was not like the Standard Oil or the tobacco trust. Each of the latter was a unit; the original constituent companies had been absorbed by the trust, and the stockholders of the trust owned the stock in all the various constituent companies. The bath tub trust, ligweiter, was made up of separate companies, purped by different sets of slockholders, bound agether under a working agreement, that divided territory and fixed

When the bath jub trust was dissolved these various companies again began competition, funder their various ownerships. Prices went down, for they had been nushed to an unnatural beight under the agree-

The dissolution of the oil and tobacco trusts accomplished no such result. The "competing" companies are still owned in common and John D. Rockefeller does not compete with John D. Rockefeller, as was shown by the fact that prices of oil went up after "competition" was restored.

In the case of the bath tub trust the legal victory of the government has accomplished some good. In the case of the Standard Oil nothing was accomplished. For such corporations as the Standard Oil a trade commission, as proposed by the Progressives, is absolutely necessary. And the mere fact that competition has been restored in the manufacture of bath tubs does not mean that trade conditions and the treatment of labor in that industry are ideal. All big industrial corporations should be under the super vision of an industrial commission, in order that the people may know at all times the exact conditions in all such corporations and exercise control over them whenever if becomes necessary.

COSTIGAN

BECAUSE he holds that the Arnold administration should proceed at once, and in the manner that appears most feasible to most friends of the movement, to carry out his pledge to give Denver commission government, the Denver News charges Edward P. Costigan with seeking to make commission government a vehicle by which to gain office for himself and his friends.

In Denver almost every man who has been in politics has been first on one side and then on another. But Edward Costigan has never been a frimmer. He has always fought a consistent fight. For years he has battled against election crooks and franchise grabbers and he is still fighting them, without compromise, without asking or giving quarter. For years he has fought for commission government. He led the Progressive hosts in Colorado this fall.

Had he been seeking merely office he could have had it for the regular Repubficans offered to compromise. But he was fighting, as he always has fought, for prin- 1 ciple, and he spurned even the suggestion | place where charity work is done, but from what I of-compromise.

« Costigan is known to all men in Denver. They all know where he has stood, where he stands now. So is T. M. Paterson known in Denver. And while he has done much good there, he has also done much harm. It is certainly not for Patterson to charge a man like Edward P. Costigan with being actuated by improper motives.

COLORADO'S DISGRACE

A PRELIMINARY statement from the bureau of mines at Washington shows that Colorado bids fair in this year of 1912 to maintain its exil eminence as one of the most dangerous states in the Union for men who work in coal mines. In 1910 Colorado sacrificed 20.36 men out of every 1,000 employed. This was double the number killed in any other state. Pennsylvania lost only 3.07 per 1,000, West Virginia 4.79.

In 1911 there were not quite so many accidents in Colorado, yet the state's record remained among the worst in the Union. Without any large accidents, there were yet 6.33 deaths per 1,000 men employed. Only four states showed a worse record than Colorado: Tennessee, Alabama, Virginia and Missouri.

In 1910 there were 323 men-killed in Colorado mines. In 1911 the number had dropped to 91. In the first seven months of 1942 there had been 64 deaths. The record this year, apparently, will be no better than in 1911.

During these years the state of Colorado has been in control of the Democrats. Their leaders have spent most of their time assailing the federal conservation policy. Would they not have served the people better if they had devoted some of their time to the conservation of human life in the coal mines of Colorado?

"PROGRESSIVE"

DOWN in Pueblo county the paper owned by Congressman elect Edward Keating fought the Progressives because it charged they were in an alliance with the corporations. The Democrats won, - And the Democratic county commissioners have just signalized their reelection by reducing the assessment of the traction company from $1,034,000, the amount fixed by the state tax commission, to $709,410.1

And this is done without a word of protest from Congressman-elect Keating. The incident is of interest as showing just how and by whom the allegedly 'progressive Democratic party is controlled.

SLOW OF FAITH

"A POLITICAL organization," opines the Boston Transcript, "which has nearly 8,000,000 voters and is divided by a personality only, need not die." It seems impossible for the standpar intellect to realize, even in cultured Boston, that the Progressive party is a separate and distinct lenting and that it is the second party in the nation, with a complete organization in every state, and with the only platform that promises a program of progressive legislation.

NOT SO BAD AS SOME

NOT to be entirely outdone by the Bell telephone trust's $10,000,000 pension and insurance fund, the harvester trust bids for public favor by setting aside $1,000,000 to be used in educating farmers in new methods of agriculture. All trusts may be had trusts, as Mr. Bryan avers, but even he must concede there are degrees of iniquity.

To the Editor of The Gazette: I was much interested in the communication this morning on St. Francis hospital. Purity in food, lower cost of living these are the demands of the day.

Pure food is health, and health is economy itself. We cannot have health without health-

The most healthful foods are the quickly raised flour foods biscuit, cake, muffins, crusts and other pastry, when perfectly made from wholesome ingredients.

Dr. PRICE'S baking powder makes these foods in specially attractive, appetizing and wholesome form, and for both economic and hygienic reasons, such food should be more largely substituted for meat in the daily diet.

But bear in mind that alum, or unwholesome baking powder. can never make pure, wholesome food.

FAIR PLAY POLICY

Attitude Premier Poincare Was Closely Watched in England

By PHILLIP EVERETT LONDON Nov 19 -There is a cer

air teeling of bitterness against the ittle Balkan states among the high officials whose duty it is to mould Balkan league of the fruits of the British government. as dististeful to a British government neaded Bulgarians Servians Greeks and Montenegrins have really failed to upon that path. But as no such eve show due consideration to our poor mality has arisen there is no need talesmen by the breathless was in consider it which they have driven the Turks from defeat to defeat. The result is that there is a lot of sorely puzzled Balkan league penetrates to Const and benildered statesmen tearing their tinople in Donning street for how are they to shape any British police when they is recognized that the capture of C prising events happening? At first Downing street booked upon the little war with the greatest unconcern, prepared to continue acting the part of Turker's big unselfish friend when the Balken league had been defeated and ready to play its fiddle in the European concert to the tune of status quo

Watch Premier Poincare.

When the French premier M. Poinbegan to get active and formuinted his plan to solve the Bulkin question as fer as possible without Downing street held back in spite of the entente cordiale, but since then it has been in constant and great powers who immediately, in face a greater danger, seemed to forget all quarrels and difficulties Britain and Germany are freely intelchanging tiews on the situation, and even France and Germany are in close and constant communication

The question before the povers seems for the moment to be not whether territory shall be taken from Turkey or reforms enforced on Turkey, but whether conquered territory should be aken away from the Balkan league. nhose members have risked and dared so much, and hitherto shown so much efficiency. It is one thing to take territory from Turkey. There the powers could never come to an agreement. But it is quite another thing give back to lurkey termion wh nas been conquered from her. It sansfactory to know that no poshas ver pranosed that that course action should be pursued Favor Fair Play Policy

Throughout all these negotiation France has acted at a tort of condu is taking a line steadily in accordawith the views just pronounced Wi still acting loyally wit up the conce and therefore avoiding an individu and independent line of policy British government is pressing fair play between the combatants

It is an essential part of this c ception of fair play that no direct tion should be taken to deprive certainly not take such action ale and would if necessary do its uim to prevent the concert from enter to what course will be pursued if been considered by the powers, but In not know where they are and when stantinople would create a new sit
